

PRIVATE TRIPS

As Easy As 1, 2, 3

1 Pick a trip and a date

Just tell us when, where and how you want to go. We'll reserve a departure exclusively for you and your companions and make it all happen in true Backroads fashion.

2 Send out your invitation

We'll gladly help, if you'd like. See our Private Trips Kit for examples of successful invites.

3 Bask in the glory

Sit back and relax while Backroads handles all of the details and you and your friends enjoy the trip of a lifetime.

And to make it even easier

Plan ahead – this is key

Why? You'll have:

- * The greatest selection of trips and dates to choose from
- * More time to gather friends and coordinate schedules
- * A longer period where we'll hold the trip open for your group
- * An easier time of booking the most convenient flights and using frequent flier miles

How far ahead?

- * 9-12 months is none too soon

Spread the word

We're happy to help by:

- * Sending invitations and catalogs for you
- * Helping you with examples of successful invite letters
- * Sending a Backroads representative to show slides and answer questions if you'd like to host a party
